YARRAGEH

Yarrageh is our own "One Act Festival" and is being held between the 31st of August and 2nd September 2007. We would like to ask anyone interested to donate $25 to help in the purchase of the trophies in a category you would like your trophy to go to. For those of you who would like to put a play into the Yarrageh Drama Festival, the closing date is the 3rd August, this gives the sub-committee a chance to go through the plays and put them into timeslots. Directors can get relevant forms by phoning the Yarrageh Co-ordinator, Christine Linning on 3869 0161. Or on the web page. I know this was also in the last newsletter but I hope all members will take a turn welcoming the other groups or working F.O.H. It is great fun.

PLAYS FOR 2008

Sandgate Theatre will be 50 years old next year and the committee has decided to make it an "Australian Play year". Anyone who has written a play set in Australia or closer to home, the Sandgate/Shorncliffe area, and would like us to read it, please contact the committee or send in a copy for perusal. The royalties would be next to nothing but it would be a great experience. The first play for 2008 is "Barbacue" directed by Chris Packman. The committee is now beginning to organise the rest of the 2008 calender.

Grants Money

The Sub-committee has been busy spending the grants money, the Theatre restaurant will be all the better for having new equipment. The Committee would like to take this opportunity to again thank all those involved in the getting of the grant
