COMMITTEE MEETING 12TH MAY

The committee received the resignation from committee members David Corrie, Chris Packman and Wally Adams who were in need of a well deserved rest.

The committee would like to extend a huge thank you to each of them. They have worked extremely hard over many years for Sandgate Theatre and we look forward to their participation in other capacities at Sandgate Theatre. "Many hands make light work" and the committee invites members to be more involved in theatre activities so that the bulk of theatre work does not fall on a few shoulders as it has been over the past few years. We are planning member nights on the last Monday of each month at Sandgate Town Hall at 7.30pm. This will be an opportunity to meet other members and feel part of the Sandgate Theatre team. There will be opportunities to learn about aspects of theatre, play readings, perhaps some theatre sports, and social events.

Theatrical Logic

In is down, down is front
Out is up, up is back Off is out, on is in
And of course-Left is right and right is left
A drop shouldn't and a Block and fall does neither
A prop doesn't and
A cove has no water
Tripping is OK
A running crew rarely gets anywhere
A purchase line buys
you nothing
A trap will not catch anything
A gridiron has nothing to do with football Strike is work (In fact a lot of work)
And a green room,
thank god, usually isn't
Now that you're fully versed in Theatrical terms,
Break a leg.
But not really.

The Forebrain

The part of an actors brain which contains lines, blocking and characterization; activated by hot lights

The Hindbrain

The part of an actors brain that keeps up a running subtext in the background while the forebrain is trying to act; the hindbrain supplies a constant stream of unwanted information, such as who is sitting in the second row tonight, a notation to seriously maim the crew member who thought it would be funny to put real Tabasco sauce in the fake Bloody Marys, or the fact that you need to do laundry on Sunday.

AUDITIONS

OUTBACK DEBUTANT'S BALL

MAY 20TH AND MAY 22ND 7.30PM

When is the last time you did the Pride of Erin?

Need people of all ages. Be prepared to have fun and lots of laughter as you put together this comedy set in the outback.

How do you find six jackaroos willing to wear dinner suits and learn to dance the minuet? How can line dancers transform into ball gowned waltzers? How can you impress a member of Parliament that your local hall is used for art and cultural events so that you receive some funding? All will be revealed at the theater restaurant presentations on 18th 19th 25th 26th July Matinee 27th July 1st and 2nd August.

Yarrageh Festival

SANDGATE THEATRE DRAMA FESTIVAL

29th 30th, 31ST
AUGUST

At the end of August, Sandgate Theatre will host the Yarrageh Drama Festival where drama groups throughout south east Qld showcase their one act play productions. Awards are given for the intermediate section for youth productions and the open section for adults. The adjudicator will be Lynne Wright.

Sandgate Theatre will require a band of Sandgate Theatre members to assist with this weekend. We will need to meet and greet other drama groups. Help will be needed backstage and front of house. The weekend will be divided into sessions of three plays and we are looking to roster members for one or more sessions. Your assistance with this weekend will be greatly appreciated.

Please contact Christine Linning on 38690161 or Eileen Gardam on eileengardam@gmail.com to register your interest in helping.
